

The purpose of the Department of Natural Resources study guides is to help increase Wisconsin citizens' knowledge about and understanding of our state's environment. We hope to provide information about important environmental issues, encourage respect for the environment and help citizens become active stewards of our natural resources.

Credits and Acknowledgements:

Author and project coordinator: Jo Temte

Project consultant: Dennis Yockers, Ph. D

Advisory committee: Dennis Yockers, Ph.D, Cathy Cliff, Ron Hennings, Chris Mechenich, Dan Sivek, Ph. D

Graphic designer and illustrator: Jeanne Gomoll, using a MacIntosh IIX computer, with Aldus Pagemaker and Adobe Illustrator programs

Thanks to Wisconsin educators statewide for field testing and review of these materials

Special thanks for editorial advice and activity development: Diane Brinson, Anne Hallowell, Kevin Kessler, Jerry Larson, Carrie Morgan, Karyl Rosenberg, Larry Sperling, Bob Wallen, Dennis Yockers

Please address comments and questions about this study guide to:

Bureau of Information and Education

Education Section

Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources

Box 7921

Madison, Wisconsin 53707

PRINTED
ON RECYCLED
PAPER